This says it all. This was placed along with a matching one on both sides of Beatties Ford Road. They herald the beginning of entrance of the school and enhance the natural beauty of the campus.

SANDERS HALL

---

Built on the Campus' West Side Sanders is a residence hall for women. It was built at the same time during the administration of Rufus P. Perry, that four other buildings were erected.

---

THE UNIVERSITY MEMORIAL UNION

---

This is THE most travelled place of any building on campus. Catering to not only students but faculty and staff. It has many functions such as dances, meetings, parties, weddings, receptions, seminars, speakers and the list goes on. Run by the indomitable Mrs. Crisp the Union has been the focal point of the campus for years. It houses the University bookstore, the Post Office and the Dining Hall known far and wide as the 'cafe'. It also has a canteen for food services until the late night munchies are stopped.

JACK S. BRAYBOY GYMNASIUM

---

Named for the prolific coach and Director of Athletics Brayboy is renowned as one of the hardest gyms for any basketball team to defeat our Golden Bulls. Sports Magazine said that it was the roughest place in the south and the Charlotte Observer called it "The Madhouse" and we love to live up to that reputation.

---

LISTON HALL

---

The second largest dorm on campus houses over 250 male freshmen. It was built during the great expansion period of the mid-sixties.

---

HUMANITIES BUILDING

---

As of yet the not named Humanities Building houses the English and Foreign Language Dept. The ground breaking was in October 1985 and the dedication will be soon in the Spring semester of '87. This building joins the long line of impressive edifices on our campus.

---

BIDDLE HALL

---

Bidle Hall is the oldest standing building on our campus. It was the original school building used by Rev. S.C. Alexander and Rev. Willis L. Miller the co-founders of the University. This building has been declared a historical landmark.

THE CARNEGIE BLDG.

This building began its service as the schools library. After the school began expanding in the Sixties it was converted into its present use, Financial Aid and Placement.

SCIENCE HALL

---

Often called the Old Science Hall this building was one of the many that was erected when Mrs. Johnson C. Smith donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to the then Bidle Institute.

---

CARTER HALL

---

Carter Hall, which is now presently a male dormitory, is the oldest dorm on this campus. It is still one of the largest and is renown as 'Animal House' and 'Castle Grey Skull'. This building like Biddle Hall has been declared a historical landmark.

---

McCROREY HALL

---

This building named after a citizen in South Carolina was the original housing unit of the theological seminary. Since the phasing out of the seminary it was used by Communications and Urban Studies, Sociology and Drama.

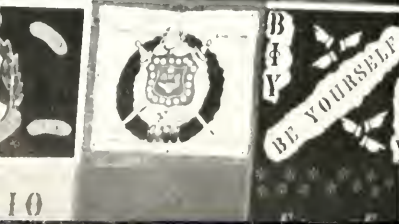

---

W. GREENFIELD HALL

---

Named for the predecessor to Dr. Albright, this is the newest of the dormitories. When built it was the first coed dorm built by any black college in the Southeast. It now houses over 400 women and has a library, computer room, conference areas, and a typing room.

SENIORS

Section Editor: Catonseia Jennings

JOHNSON C. SMITH
UNIVERSITY

To The Class of 1987:

Just four short years ago, we entered Johnson C. Smith University together; you as our entering freshman class and I as President of the University. Hence, it should be no surprise or secret that I feel a very special kinship with the class of 1987, for in every imaginable way you are my "first class" of graduates. Over the years, we have witnessed, experienced and presided over many changes at our university - and your class, the class of 1987, have been the important architects and living examples of what we so proudly proclaimed as our New Era of Excellence.

Clearly, Smith has grown and prospered since you arrived on the campus in August, 1983. You were an important part of our phenomenal $8,000,000 Capital Campaign; you observed the construction and opening of Greenfield Hall and our new Humanities Building; you were the first class of seniors to occupy our new Banking Center; you benefited directly from the renovation of Duke, Smith, Carter and Myers Halls; and, you will one day be able to proudly proclaim to your children and grandchildren that you were a student at JCSU when the restoration of Biddle Hall began. Indeed, you will have many fond and glorious memories of the days you spent at Alma Mater - and I hope that you will someday recognize and appreciate the many things we have been able to accomplish together at a time when the future of many of the nation's Historically black Colleges is questionable.

I have little doubt that our very fine faculty has prepared you well for the future. You have survived a very rigorous academic experience and you are, quite frankly, among the best educated students in the country today. However, I sincerely hope that Johnson C. Smith University has given you more than just a good education and the means to acquire economic security and personal fulfillment for the future. I hope that we have instilled in you an almost arrogant sense of confidence about your abilities, a love for Alma Mater, a sense of pride in being a graduate of this historic institution, and a recognition of your responsibility to the community which made it possible for you to achieve your educational goals.

I wish you all much success in the future. You are our brightest and our best. You are the best hope of our community and the nation for providing the kind of unique sensitivity, intellectual skills and deep commitment for insuring genuine equality of opportunity for all of our citizens.

May God speed you on your way - and may you ever be true to the "DEAR OLD GOLD AND BLUE."

With deepest respect, affection and appreciation, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Robert L. Albright

"What can I say? I'm the best all-around. I hope that you don't think I'm conceited because I'm the best. After all it's your fault you sored me in. Oh, by the way have I thanked all the little people that made this possible..."

Athena, Isis, Lady of the Lake, Stheno, Winifred. All names of goddesses of beauty. You must admit that she's a long way from old stone faces. If Medusa can turn men to stone, Win's smile can turn them back or at least make life as a rock a little more bearable.

FRIENDLY OLE VICKI BELL

THERESA,
MOST POPULAR

Large "Crown Jewel" Theresia has made it into "Most Popular" (ranked 10th) with 110 votes. In addition she is the "Friendliest" girl on campus. Her interests include: swimming, volleyball, and reading.

Friendly little Theresa did not expect to be popular or "Most Popular" (ranked 10th) because of that centerfold on page 116. Thinking you have no worries, even after graduation you'll find your favorite at a neighborhood, we could not believe you had that picture.

ALVIS KNOWS
SILENCE IS A VIRTUE

A somewhat famous person, Theresia for the most quietest girl in the class. She is always the person about trouble and problems. So here she answers you before she quickly takes the air.

SUPERLATIVES

TERRY DOES IT HER WAY

Harper's Bazaar? Guinness? Vogue? No. It's her doing what she does best—being Terry. Her name is seldom taken (affectionate, she has won just about every talent contest—except the Carson Talent Show at high school in Winston-Salem) and that's because she didn't enter. If you don't know her, she's the most talented female and the most likely to be famous you've had your head in a hedge.

TREEEEVE

Mozart in the making? Yes! If this genius were able to do anything to do with it, Treyon's Mom could be considered the best thing since the invention of the M&M's or, Today Smith, tomorrow night. —Cebair

THAT'S JUST TOO MUCH COMING BACK

No, he's not performing some Satanic ritual or even reacting the usual way. He's just being non-conformist. As usual. This R.A. (Ramin's, Ansel's) has left a devastating wake of reinvigoration (rubie in his place) one of which Shirley McLaine would be proud. If you haven't been acquainted with his views on organized religion by the time you read through you won't know what to believe.

THEY TALK TOO MUCH
THEY NEVER SHUT UP

We know they have to talk about Terence's bizarre picture, but that's just it. They won't stop. Can you see the very reason why Daryl won. If you had a choice like that you'd win most talkative too. Don't think Lashun can't let loose either.

DANNY, DANNY HE'S OUR MAN

Is this the president of Chase Manhattan or of Mechanics & Farmer's even? Not. But he does have enough senior superlatives to open a small Swiss bank account: 1) most popular 2) most likely to be famous 3) best all-around. If he had a dollar bill for all these categories, he could pay more than 75¢ of his bill at validation.

WHO SAYS YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING

Who said you can't have brains and beauty? Well, this studious brunette bombshell proves that you can. Don't think that just because she keeps her pretty little nose in a book that she'll be a Librarian. We all know that once she puts those books down every guy in town will want to "check her out". But her reply: "You don't even know the Dewey Decimal System."

The fall from Grace (in this case Gwen) came quickly. As soon as this Minister of Education (or if you prefer this Bodacious Bozo) heard that he had won not only Miss Gwen BUT most outrageous he dashed (or as you like dropped) to the waiting crowd (Gwen, who happened to be on her way to a friend's) where asked about his sudden trip he said "It's really a flap down for me."

Good Lord! Or should we say God's good as we beheld the body BEAUTIFUL? It really would have lived in ancient Pompeii we see why heavenly they like too. This common-sense cutie, this sensual senior this gem of the globe can melt butter but beware lurking behind that pretty face is a witty mind & pulsating cerebrum that only adds to the beauty not detracts. Now we find only that Philadelphia Cheese contained.

Like a lot of of her she comes. This giant of a girl with the distinctive odors. Part of the same part "The Feminist & the Fuzz" with "Polaris" and "The Blue of Heaven" and last "Benetton" has a large bag of money but she's too outlandish to be a woman like sitting next on the ground. A woman to remember. But remember! Remember don't be like you are or to be like this matter.

Guess it's over, call it a day Sorry that it had to end this way, But no reason to pretend We knew it had to end, but it's over Yes it's over Yes it's over the kicks are gone. What's the use of trying to hang on To whatever chance we try Let's face it, why deny. Too much too little too late to Ever try again. We're in the Middle of ending something That we knew was over. Yes it's over Dedicated to the Senior Class

Dedicated to Cynthia Thorne

Dear Cynthia,

In my mind I see a picture
Of a time when we were friends.
I see your smile, and hear your laughter
As though it were only a moment ago.
You dance in and out of my life daily
With ivy in your hair and candles at your feet.
You are twining around and around
In a mysterious dance, and you beckon to me
With outstretched arms that I might follow
Your beauty, which captivates me.
But always, as I grow closer,
You seem to glide further away.
But I know that you will always be there —
Waiting for me in eternity.

Love,
Ella

We knew you for only a minute,
But the hours we shared can never be replaced.
Love and Friendship, Love and Sisterhood
Oh, what wonderful lessons you taught us!
We can never fully close/that wonderful chapter of our lives of which you were such a part
Our goodbyes are not forever
We know that one day again
We will . . .
Laugh
Share
Care
and Love — Just as before.

by
— Kim Jackson — with love from
Gamma Delta Chapter

In Memory of Anthony "Tick" McClam

God has called you home my love to dwell in his gates of gold.
The pain will ease as time prevalls and I will become strong again.

But the love we shared and the time we spent will remain locked in my heart forever. Your personality is the mecca of love, understanding, patience, and ambition to life and friends.

You're safe now to roam about like a child again, no more worries of this world, but a world that God has prepared for us. You are the sign and symbol that we love, but God loves you best.

My Love for You Will Never Die

Though because of unforeseen complications this year's tennis team was young and inexperienced. This may prove a handicap but we, the student body, believe and expect a championship team as we have had in the past.

BEHOLD THE BLUE AND THE GOLD

This year the Johnson C. Smith Marching Golden Bulls had a tremendous season. Performing crowd pleasing dancing and imaginative formations this year's band can truly be called Genius. Though the band was small in comparison to some others, the members took on each school with the same enthusiasm, and it showed. When our BAND marched on the field that's when all other competition stopped.

JCSU FUNK

The air was filled with the electrical charge of the crowd coming to its feet and simultaneously chanting: BEHOLD THE BLUE AND THE GOLD! Under the proud direction of the new band director Duncan Gray, JCSU was known all over the country as THE band to march against. Good work Band.

Theresa Crunkleton, our queen, gives thanks to those who mean much to her. She reigned over this year's coronation with poise and elegance.

Miss JCSU choose for a theme this year "To the Limits of Imagination" this coincided with the overall Homecoming theme "Pieces of the Dream."

Their Royal Highnesses leave the stage as the University President, Dr. Robert L. Albright, gives his remarks.

MISS J's

Look at the lovely Miss JCSU as she takes out from her reception to survey the scene.

The elegant evening was highlighted as the queen was serenaded with song.

Theresa is flanked by her family.

RECEPTION

Serenity! That was the key to this year's annual. Discoveries and not all of them enjoyable. I chose this path that I walk and the bed of coals that I treaded over I would not wish on anyone. The enemies I've made and friends that I found. To put the experience of this concised six months would fill a book. But unfortunately you the consumer of our work, will probably not want to here me lament over calamities and hardships. I know that all you want is the product that we so lovingly produced. I can truly say that this has literally been the worst year of my life, a culmination if you will of the malestrom I feel I've weathered here at Johnson C. Smith, ah, but that is another tragic tale I'm sure you don't want to hear. I guess what I'm trying to say in this confused collection of prose is that even though there has been tribulation galore (and GOD knows) that I would run down this arduous road again. I am bitter some may think, I am, maybe, but I am glad that I had the chance to learn to be ME and to live for no one else.

I must thank some very important people that helped me in this endeavor. My mother, Mrs. Gwendolyn Stewart (Thank you Moma, I love you), my mentor Dr. P.T. Radcliffe (Thank you very much) my advisors Mrs. Joyce Schuler, Mr. Herber Gidney, Mrs. Johnlemae Flowers and Mrs. Nona Brewington, my most devoted staff members: Kyle Daniels, Roger Williams, Bill Rohlsen, and Kathy McKenzie, Ivy Jones, and my dearest friends: Terence Powers, Mitchell Sharpe, Gwendolyn Leverett, and Deedra Wright.

Thank You

Daryl T. Sturgis
Editor 1987 Bull

Serving on the Yearbook Staff for two years has definitely been an experience.

I will never forget. This production of the "Bull" has brought about a great deal of challenge and frustration for the entire staff. We have had to overcome various obstacles including budget cuts, photo sessions, lack of commitment and inclement weather conditions just to name a few. However we perservered and here you have our version of the "Bull" '87.

Many of us may never assemble together after we leave here so we have provided us with a keepsake I'm sure you will cherish and remember so fondly our Alma Mater.

I'd like to thank my photographers: Jason Green, Jessie Gore, Demetrius Hodges, and Mike Worthy.

I will remember you ALWAYS

Kathryn

ALIVE AND WELL

"Zooman and the Sign" was originally produced off Broadway in New York City. The same author who wrote "Zooman" wrote the award winning "A Soldier Play". The play "Zooman" received an Obie an award given to off Broadway productions.

"Zooman" is a taunt drama about the murder of a young girl in a Philadelphia slum and the days after her death. The family is slowly destroyed as they try to convince several of their neighbors to speak to the police, of course to no avail. Finally in frustration the father hangs a sign on his porch that eventually leads to more violence and in the shattering climax causes the death of the youth that shot his daughter.

"Lysistrata" is an ancient Greek comedy. To further help it to relate the JCSU Theatre reset the comedy in West Africa. The premise that it is set on is that the men of Kumbi Saleh are fighting the tribe of Walata. The women of both tribes come together and decide not to have sex with their husbands until the men stop fighting. All the women, led by Lysistrata, hold up in the temple. The ensuing days later find the spurned men in a state of agony and confusion. In the end peace and love win out when the men stop fighting and the women return to their husbands.

The Cast of the play "Zooman and the Sign" by Charles Fuller: Dr. Charlotte D'Armond, Director, Anton Davis — Victor Tate, Trevon Hampton — Music, James Scott — Emmette Tate, Reggie McNeely — Zooman, Terri Henry — Rachel Tate, Spencer Tukes — Rueben Tate, Lori Gavin — Grace, Daryl T. # BLACK COLLEGE DAY

Students from JCSU and other historically black colleges from all over North Carolina converged on the state capital in the month of October. The reason was the annual Black College Day. Our own S.G.A. President Danniell Harrison represented this school as did an entire bus load that went down for the march. The activities began on the campus of Shaw University and culminated at the steps of the state capitol. The celebration both stress brotherhood and a continued awareness of the problems the black school is facing now and in the future.

To you ole JC Smith, we sing this ode:
We're so glad that we had this TIME TOGETHER;
Just to have a laugh or sing a song, but BEFORE
You know it comes the come we have to say SO LONG.

It was once written that the moving hand writes, and having written, moves on. We are like that, we enter this hollowed halls mere youths, full of zeal and naivete. We leave with your thought and edicts echoing in our ears. Your voice like a siren, has lured us here and we have heard the song of education. As we know part to go and become what it is we are to become, that is but one phrase that we must sign as we leave your bosom . . .

WE
SMITH WITH ALL
